CARS COLLIDE IN HEAVY RAIN
Two Narrowly Miss Death

Two Miss Death as Cars Collide in Driving Rain

Two motorists narrowly missed death in the violent rainstorm Saturday afternoon when their cars, traveling in opposite directions collided on Torrance boulevard near Maple avenue.

Taken to Harbor General Hospital with injuries were Frederick K. Watson, 46, of Santa Monica, and Rita L. Williams, 38, Redondo Beach, the drivers of the cars.

Watson told police officers he was driving east, around the curve in Torrance boulevard when his brakes locked. His heavy sedan skidded widely across the road and smashed into the car being driven by the Redondo Beach woman. The Watson car, its front wheels sheared off by the collision, came to rest in a water-filled ditch on the north side of Torrance boulevard.

Death Takes Mrs. McCallum

Services will be held at 9 a.m. Friday for Kathryn B. McCallum, 61, of 1317 Engracia avenue at a local hospital. Services will be conducted by Father P. J. McGuinness at the Nativity Catholic Church. Rosary will be recited at the Stone and Myers chapel, 8 p.m. today; mass will be held at the Catholic Church here.

Mrs. McCallum is survived by her husband, Robert McCallum; a brother, Robert Boyen of Chicago; and sisters, Mrs. George Brandon of Minneapolis; Mrs. David Dahl of Minneapolis; and Mrs. J. Baumhofer of McHenry, Ill.

Salute to YMCA Offered by Many Local Churches

Beginning Sunday a number of Churches will give special recognition to the YMCA commemorating the organization's services to youth and Christianity, according to announcements made this week by William H. Tolson, chairman of the Torrance Y.M.C.A. board of managers. During the week special programs and observance of week, January 22nd to 29th will be held at various service clubs. Y.M.C.A. activities last year included athletic leagues, intergroup councils and committees, special events such as trips, movies, Easter Sunrise Service, field days, parties, hikes, and roundups. More than 800 boys are registered in clubs. During Easter vacation week, free learn-to-swim classes were attended by nearly 600. Other services of the Y.M.C.A. to Torrance have been individual counsel to parents and boys and a mountain summer camping program.
